3. Both files must convey the work’s title and the abstract:

authors with suggestions, should such need arise. Texts may be submitted in Portuguese, English, French, German, Spanish and Italian.

7. The double blind review will analyze the abstract, the theories, the legislative references, the consistency, the correct use of language and the conclusions. If there is disagreement between reviewers, the Editorial Board will resolve the question.

8. All authors must previously disclose any conflict of interest and, by submitting the work to the Journal of Contemporary Private Law, authors imply agreement to the Brazilian legislation regarding authorship. After text acceptance, authors will then be required to transfer the copyright to Thomson Reuters/Revista dos Tribunais, free of charge, for publication.

9. Published authors will be given a print copy of the issue in which their work is published in exchange for the copyright transfer.
